GUIDE TO CATALOG

Publications of the U.S. Department of Agriculture are designed to be of service to the public . . . farmers . . . suburbanites . . . homemakers . . . consumers. They are listed because of their subject matter, regardless of date. Revisions are made continuously.

Up to 10 different publications will be sent free. If you need more we will consider a special request but please explain why you need extra copies. Otherwise, for quantity requests, or if the supply of any of the publications is exhausted by the time your request reaches us, you will be referred to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., 20402, where prices will be quoted.

It is sometimes possible to obtain quantities from Members of Congress who receive an allotment of Farmers' Bulletins, Leaflets, and Home and Garden Bulletins for such distribution as they wish to make.

Extension workers should follow directions for ordering from their State publications distribution officer.

Students are requested to apply through their teachers who may receive limited quantities for school libraries.

For information on agricultural and homemaker subjects not included in this list, write to the Office of Information, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250.

Use order blank at end of catalog.

Order by letter and number and address all requests to:

FILMSTRIPS—

Filmstrips (Slidefilms) and slide series of the United States Department of Agriculture cover a variety of agricultural and home economics subjects. They are designed for use in teaching better farm and home practices. A catalog, listing subjects and prices, is available from the Photography Division, Office of Information, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250.

PHOTOGRAPHS—

Reproductions of photographs which have been obtained in connection with the authorized work of the Department may be purchased. Prices for prints and enlargements will be quoted upon request. Address requests to Photography Division, Office of Information, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250.

MONTHLY LIST OF PUBLICATIONS AND MOTION PICTURES—

This list gives titles of printed publications and motion pictures released. It will be sent to anyone on request. Apply to the Office of Information, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250.

MOTION PICTURES—

The Department has available approximately 325 16-mm sound films, most of which are in color; a few are available in the 35-mm width. Approximately 250 of these films have been cleared for television showings. Agriculture Handbook 14, which contains a listing of the films with short descriptions, details regarding their loan from cooperating film libraries throughout the country, and purchase information, is available from the Motion Picture Service, Office of Information, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250.

FARM RADIO AND TELEVISION PROGRAMS—

For USDA news reports, special features from research laboratories, land-grant colleges, interviews with USDA officials and scientists, and special agricultural events, consult your local schedule of radio and television programs for times of farm and consumer broadcasts, including "Across the Fence" (TV), the NBC Farm Review, ABC's "American Farmer," and USDA's "Agriculture USA" on individual stations, and daily farm reports on hundreds of local stations. The Department furnishes material regularly to both radio and television stations on agricultural and consumer topics.
